PCS Honors Four Good Samaritans at Annual Awards Ceremony

Manchester, N.H. – PCS recently celebrated its 23rd Annual Good Samaritan Awards Celebration by recognizing four extraordinary individuals to include: Susan Bradley, Founder, North End Montessori School, Peter Cooke, Culture Building Consultant/Founder, Cooke Associates, Doug LeClerc, Co-founder, Borderless Books, Manchester School District, and Manchester Fire Chief Dan Goonan, Manchester Fire Safe Station.

“The Good Samaritan Awards are an annual tradition to honor individuals who pursue extraordinary measures to strengthen communities and improve life in New Hampshire,” said Dr. David Reynolds, D.Min., LPP, PCS Executive Director. “We were honored to celebrate this year’s honorees. What’s unique about this awards ceremony is that each of the individuals were chosen by their peers for their extraordinary community service. While they all have different backgrounds, they each have the same ‘giving back’ trait that has dictated their paths in our communities.”

Over the past 23 years, PCS has honored more than 125 individuals.
